COURT NEWS

In the County Court Judge Geo. Batterton imposed a fine of $14.50 on William Rankin on a charge of breach of the peace. Minnie Harris, charged with breach of the peace, was dismissed. The case against Robert Butler, charged with hunting on the premises of another without permission, was continued.

Morris Shanks, a young white man residing near Paris. was held to the grand jury at the March term of Bourbon Circuit Court on the charge of selling turkeys alleged to have been stolen from Mrs. Angie Houston, of near Paris. Shanks furnished bond in the sum of $250. and was discharged from custody. Nelson Porter, colored. was fined $60 and costs, to be worked out at hard labor if not paid, on a charge of stealing corn from Robert Meteer's farm near South Paris, many others contended it should be made part of the buildduring the past summer.

In the Court of Appeals at Frankfort, Friday, the case of Kreigel vs. Harris, Speakes & Harris, from the Bourbon Circuit Court, was reversed. The question in controversy was over the payment of $2,000 for making the sale of Kriegel's farm on the Bethlehem pike, near Paris, to the Bourbon Nurseries. The amount was paid to Harris, Speakes & Harris. and suit was brought later to recover same, judgment being given to Kriegel in the Bourbon court. An appeal was taken from this. The effect of the latter judgment is to sustain the contention of Harris, Speakes & Harris, who were represented by Talbott & Whitley, of Paris.

In the County Court Mary Hill True was appointed by County Judge George Batterton as administratrix. with the will annexed, of the estate of the late Mrs. Alice B. Violett, of Cincinnati, who was killed by her husband last summer. Mrs. True accepted the trust and qualified by furnishing bond in the sum of $6.000, with Walter B. Violett as surety.

CLEMENCEAU AND WILSON

Now and then it is not a little refreshing to go away from home to learn the news, and refreshing also even to have some one from abroad come in upon us to tell us what the news is here at home.

For exmple, consider this bit of news that Georges Clemenceau recently gave to the New York World after he had come out of a doorway in a house on S Street, in Washing-

"But surely you mentioned the fourteen points?"

"Yes. I did, and Wilson's face lit up. He is as firm a believer in In a plea for patriotism and pre- their ultimate triumph now as he paredness, Edwin P. Morrow, Gover- was when he came to Paris. And he nor of Kentucky, declared at the an- was so touched when I told him nual session of the New York that the chief round of applause at all my speeches comes when I have "We must make no jest of our occasion to mention his name. You armed men, no painted toy of our remember-it was the same at Bosbattleships. God help us to keep ton, Chicago and St. Louis as in forever a watchman on the towers New York. Make no mistake. the Americans still love their Wilson. Why, even this morning at the War College, it was the same."
